1 An Ordinance recommended by the Planning Commission of the City of St. Louis
2 pertaining to the regulation of home occupations in the Zoning Code; amending Ordinance
3 59979, Section Twenty-One, in part; codified as § 26.80.060(A) and § 26.80.060(B) of Revised
4 Code of the City of St. Louis, pertaining to permitted home occupations; containing a
5 severability clause.

6 WHEREAS, the City of Saint Louis is home to creative people, entrepreneurs, and 7 businesses of every size who seek to comply with the law while growing their business and 8 serving their customers; and

9 WHEREAS, the creativity, diversity, and ingenuity of the people of the City of Saint
10 Louis should be allowed to flourish without unnecessary red tape, over-regulation, or arcane,
11 out-dated laws; and

12 WHEREAS, the City of Saint Louis’s current laws regulating home occupations restrict 13 the available home occupations to a list of specified occupations, but a more dynamic law would 14 be better able to adapt to a changing city and emerging businesses; and

15 WHEREAS, it is a priority of the City of Saint Louis to make it as easy as possible for 16 people to start a new business and to grow an existing business, while ensuring that necessary
17 and reasonable public health, safety, and quality of life protections remain in place; and

18 WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the City of Saint Louis that the regulation of 19 home occupations be reformed;

20 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS AS FOLLOWS:

21 SECTION ONE. Section Twenty-One of Ordinance 59979, in part, codified as § 26.80.060(A)
22 and § 26.80.060(B) of the Revised Code of the City of St. Louis, is hereby repealed and replaced

1 with the following:

2 26.80.060 Home occupations. Home occupations shall be permitted if the following
3 requirements are met:

4 1. The home occupation does not change the outside appearance of the residential
5 dwelling,

6 2. The home occupation does not change the primary use of the home from 7 residential;

8 2. The home occupation does not generate traffic, parking, sewerage, refuse, water
9 use, noise, dust, odors, or vibrations in excess of what is normal in a residential neighborhood;

10 3. The home occupation does not create a hazard to person or property, result in 11 electrical interference, involve the storage of flammable or hazardous materials, or become a
12 public or private nuisance, and the home is not classified by the city as a nuisance property;

13 4. The home occupation does not have outside storage or display any occupation-
14 related equipment, including vehicles that openly display occupation-related equipment, outside
15 the home;

16 5. The home occupation does not regularly and routinely employ anyone who is not 17 also a resident of the home to perform work inside the home;

18 6. The applicant of the home occupation resides at the home;

19 7. The home occupation does not display a sign outside the home;

20 8. The home occupation does not regularly and routinely accept customers, clients,
21 or the general public into the home;

22 9. The home occupation does not advertise, solicit or invite customers, clients, or the

1 general public to the home;

2 10. The home occupation is within a property with a valid Occupancy Permit;

3 11. The home occupation and the property remain in compliance with all city laws,
4 rules, and regulations.

5 SECTION TWO. Registration in lieu of tax.

6 Sections 8.07.042(A) and 8.07.042(B) of the Revised Code of the City of St. Louis are hereby 7 repealed and replaced with the following:

8 Section 8.07.042(A).

9 Any person or taxpayer operating a home occupation that is permitted by and meets the 10 requirements of the Zoning Code of the City of St. Louis may apply to the License Collector for 11 designation and registration as a home occupation operator. Such designation and registration
12 shall be granted for a one year period and be renewable each year on an annual basis if and only
13 if the person or payer meets the following conditions: (1) The application is accompanied by: (a)
14 a copy of a home occupation permit issued by the Zoning Administrator, (b) a copy of the E-234
15 Business Earnings Tax Form filed by the taxpayer with the Collector of Revenue for the 16 preceding calendar year, (c) a written statement of clearance certifying that no current or past
17 earnings and/or personal property taxes are due and payable to the City; and (2) said Form E-234
18 demonstrates that the taxpayer's gross earnings attributable to such home occupation for said
19 preceding calendar year are less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); provided,
20 however, that taxpayers who were not required to file Form E-234 for the preceding calendar
21 year due to the fact that their business did not then exist shall be eligible for designation as home
22 occupation operators without filing the E-234 form for that calendar year only.

1 Sections 8.07.042(B).

2 Upon designation as a home occupation operator, the operator shall pay, in lieu of the graduated
3 business license tax, a home occupation registration fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars
4 ($25.00). Upon payment of the registration fee, the operator shall be issued a certificate of 5 registration by the License Collector that shall be maintained at the home occupation premises.

6 SECTION THREE. Severability Clause.

7 The provisions of this ordinance are severable. In the event any provision of this ordinance is 8 determined to be invalid, the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby.
