ALDERWOMAN CHRISTINE INGRASSIA

1            An Ordinance recommended by the Planning Commission of the City of St. Louis
2            pertaining to the regulation of home occupations in the Zoning Code; repealing Ordinance
3            Number 59979, Section Twenty-One, in part, as codified in Section 26.80.060 of the Revised
4            Code of the City of St. Louis, and enacting new provisions pertaining to permitted home
5            occupations; repealing Section Three of Ordinance Number 69084, as amended by Ordinance
6            Number 69199, as codified in Chapter 26.98 of the Revised Code of the City of St. Louis, and 7            enacting a new chapter pertaining to Zoning fee schedules; repealing Sections One and Two of 8            Ordinance Number 62617, as codified in Sections 8.07.042(A) and 8.07.042(B) of the Revised 9            Code of the City of St. Louis, and enacting new provisions pertaining to registration in lieu of 10           taxes for home occupations; containing a severability clause and an effective date.

11           WHEREAS, the City of Saint Louis is home to creative people, entrepreneurs, and 12           businesses of every size who seek to comply with the law while growing their business and 13           serving their customers; and

14           WHEREAS, the creativity, diversity, and ingenuity of the people of the City of Saint 15           Louis should be allowed to flourish without unnecessary red tape, over-regulation, or arcane, 16           out-dated laws; and

17           WHEREAS, the City of Saint Louis’s current laws regulating home occupations restrict 18           the available home occupations to a list of specified occupations, but a more dynamic law would 19           be better able to adapt to a changing city and emerging businesses; and

20           WHEREAS, it is a priority of the City of Saint Louis to make it as easy as possible for 21           people to start a new business and to grow an existing business, while ensuring that necessary 22           and reasonable public health, safety, and quality of life protections remain in place; and
