

Resolution Number 68
Savage-Taylor Family Day

WHEREAS, on June 26-28, 2015, the Savage-Taylor Family has come together for their family reunion; Inspired by 1 Corinthians 13:13 “Staying Connected Through Love”; and

WHEREAS, as individuals of the Savage-Taylor family, they find their families a sense of identity, purpose and security. They believe family is more than a group of individuals related by blood, marriage, civil unions or adoption. A family is a community of persons united by their love and commitment to one another. It is through family life that their most cherished values and traditions are passed from one generation to the next. Through through experience as members of a family, they learn important lessons about love and faith, duty and respect, personal responsibility and concern for others.

WHEREAS, because those lessons are conveyed to the community at large, and because family gives us a model of human relationships after all other social institutions are fashioned, the strength and integrity of the family are vital to our well-being as a community.

WHEREAS, the Savage-Taylor Family has a strong commitment in family, community and country rings true in everything they do. A large percent of them have served in the armed forces, Police Department, educational and medical field, you can tell that they are about serving others; and

WHEREAS, this year in the month of June, the Savage-Taylor Family have come together to reflect. celebrate with one another and to share their love and knowledge with their community.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and honor the Savage-Taylor Family and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
