BUDGET PROCESS

Budget as Operating Plan

The budget for the City is an Annual Operating Plan serving as the guidebook for the fiscal year. It sets policy, identifies new initiatives and allocates the resources necessary to maintain City services and meet the objectives of the fiscal year. The fiscal year for the City of St. Louis runs from July 1 to June 30. In accordance with state law, the budget must be balanced when adopted.

Budget Basis

The General Fund and most special fund budgets are formulated on a modified accrual basis. Encumbrances, including outstanding purchase orders, are budgeted as expenses but revenues are recognized only when they are actually received. Enterprise fund appropriations including the Airport and Water Divisions are budgeted on a cash basis. Both expenditures and revenues are recognized when actually paid or received. The City's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) accounts for the City's finances according to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). This method differs from the budget basis primarily in that revenues are recognized when they are measurable and available as opposed to actually received and expenditures are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than paid or encumbered. For this reason, the CAFR also contains financial statements expressed on a "budget" basis so that end-of-year results can be compared with the budget.

The Budget Process

- The budget process begins in the fall when the Budget Division issues a request for departmental revenue estimates. The information submitted by the departments will be incorporated into the Budget Division's initial revenue estimate for the coming fiscal year.
- At the same time the department heads are asked to identify any new initiatives or programs so that they may be included in the budget planning process.
- In January, having arrived at a preliminary revenue estimate for the coming fiscal year and incorporating any new initiatives or areas that will experience an increase in costs, the Budget Division issues budget allocations to departments.
- Departments respond by submitting their budget requests and service level information to the Budget Division.
- In February, the Budget Division holds budget meetings with the departments and the administration to discuss budget requests and, where necessary, reconcile discrepancies between allocations and requests.
- Revenue estimates are continually updated throughout this period. In March, departmental budget proposals are adjusted to reflect the latest revenue projections.

BUDGET PROCESS

- In April, the Budget Division prepares the budget document and submits its proposed budget to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment (E&A), comprised of the Mayor, the Comptroller and the President of the Board of Aldermen. The Board of E&A reviews the proposed budget, holds hearings with departments and conducts a public hearing at which citizens may voice their concerns. Following the hearings, the Board of E&A may recommend changes to the proposed budget.

Next Steps - Charter Requirements

- The Board of E&A must submit its proposed budget to the Board of Aldermen not less than 60 days prior to the beginning of the fiscal year, or May 1.
- During May and June, the Ways and Means Committee of the Board of Aldermen conducts public hearings on each segment of the proposed budget prior to taking any action. The proposed budget is reviewed and then considered by the Board of Aldermen.
- The Board of Aldermen may reduce the amount of any item in a budget bill, except amounts fixed by statute or ordinance obligations. The Board of Aldermen may not increase any appropriation amount nor insert new items unless specifically approved by the Board of E&A. (As a general rule, should increases for particular items be desired, the Ways and Means committee will submit a list of items for the Board of E&A to consider, with which it may or may not agree.)
- If the Board of E&A does not submit its proposed budget to the Board of Aldermen by May 1, the Budget Director would be required to submit a budget directly to the Board of Aldermen.
- If the Board of Aldermen does not approve a budget by the beginning of the fiscal year, the proposed budget by the Board of E&A or, in its absence, the submission by the Budget Director, shall be deemed to have been approved by the Board of Aldermen.

Budget / Operating Plan Administration

- As needs arise during the fiscal year, limited transfers within or among departments or funds may occur with approval of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. Any accruing or unappropriated City revenue may be appropriated by ordinance recommended by the Board of E&A and passed by the Board of Aldermen.

CITY DEBT

General Discussion

The City of St. Louis is authorized to issue general obligation bonds, payable from unlimited and ad valorem taxes to finance capital improvements, upon a two-thirds majority vote of the qualified voters voting on the specific proposition. The Missouri Constitution provides that the amount of bonds payable out of tax receipts (which includes bonds payable from special assessments) shall not exceed 10% of the total assessed valuation of the taxable property of the City. The Constitution permits the City to become indebted for an additional 10% of the value of the taxable tangible property for the purpose of acquiring a right-of-way, constructing, extending and improving a sanitary or storm sewer system. The City is also authorized to issue revenue bonds to finance capital improvements to its water system, sewer system, and airport facilities. These types of revenue bonds require a two-thirds vote of the qualified electorate voting on the specific proposition.

The City is also authorized to issue revenue bonds to finance capital improvements to its water system, sewer system, and airport facilities. These types of revenue bonds require a two-thirds vote of the qualified electorate voting on the specific proposition.

All revenue bonds issued by the City are payable solely out of the revenue derived from the operation of the facility that is financed from the proceeds of such bonds. Revenue bonds do not pledge the full faith and credit of the City in servicing the bonded indebtedness and such bonds are not considered in determining the legal debt margins resulting from the limitations described

The City is also authorized by statute to issue "Tax Increment Financing" obligations pertaining to development projects. Such obligations are secured by increments of revenues attributable to property and other taxes generated by improvements to the project area and may also be secured by annual appropriations from the City's General Fund. The City's potential general fund obligation has been limited to two TIFs to date. The first TIF in 1991 for St. Louis Marketplace required subsidies beginning in FY06 and continued into FY10 where the subsidy amount was estimated at $0.7 million. Marketplace debt was retired in FY11 requiring no additional subsidies. In 2007, the City issued $16,961,000 in TIF bonds for the One City Centre Redevelopment Project, which like the Marketplace project were secured by general revenues in addition to incremental revenues. No payments from the general fund from this project are anticipated in FY12.

Outstanding Debt and Lease Obligations

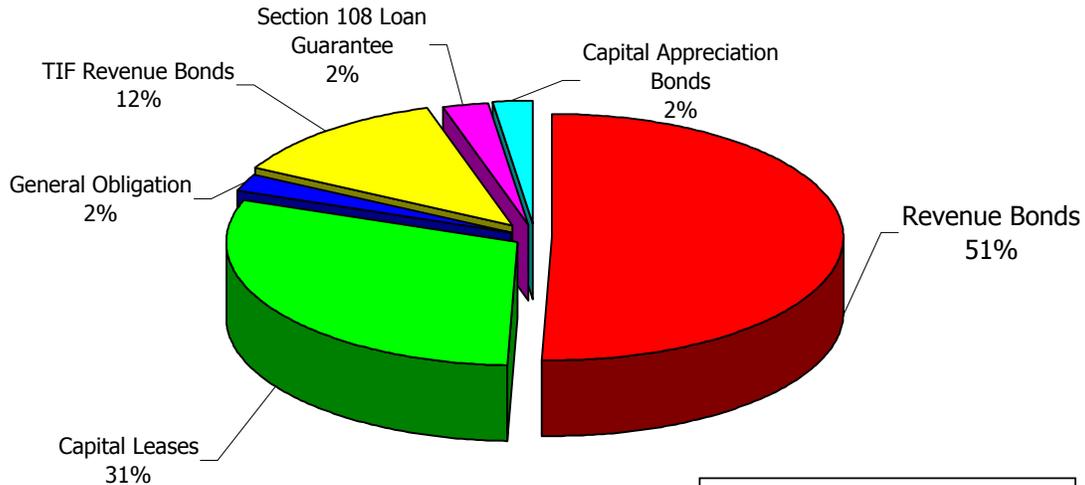

In addition to those financing mechanisms already discussed, the City uses capital leases as a means of financing major development and construction projects. The City's total outstanding debt and lease obligations as estimated as of the end of June, 2011 are approximately $1.9 billion. This total includes $238.9M in TIF revenue bonds, most of which are backed solely by project revenues. This amount also includes $46.8M in Section 108 (HUD) loan guarantees for the convention center hotel and Hope VI housing development projects. As illustrated below, just over 50% of the City's total debt is in the form of revenue bonds issued primarily by the Airport and to a lesser extent the Water and Parking Divisions.

CITY DEBT

General Obligation and Revenue Bonds

Payments on general obligation debt are made from ad valorem property tax and license receipts. In 1999, the City issued $65 million in general obligation bonds. With the bond proceeds, the City's Fire Department replaced its existing fire fighting fleet and conducted renovations to its firehouses. The St. Louis Police Department received funds to upgrade its crime lab and make improvements to its headquarters building on Clark Street. The bonds also provided $11 million for the demolition of abandoned and derelict buildings throughout the City. An additional $13.0 million in G.O. debt was issued in 2006 to provide matching funds for road and bridge projects, floodwall improvements and public safety communications systems. Another debt instrument known as revenue bonds are limited obligations of the City payable solely from the revenues of the department or facility financed by the bonds. By far the largest component of debt in this or any other debt category are the revenue bonds related to the Airport expansion and various improvement projects.

Capital Leases

The City has a number of outstanding lease-purchase agreements which can be characterized as capital leases. In capital lease financing, a non-profit authority issues debt to fund a project. This debt is secured by lease payments to the authority by a municipality leasing the project or equipment that is being financed. A list of the City's major existing agreements is presented

While General Obligation debt is funded through property tax revenues and revenue debt is paid through the revenues of the project being financed, capital lease debt does not specifically have a dedicated revenue source for making lease payments. These payments are generally obligations of the City's General Fund. In as much as possible, the City has sought to lessen this burden on the general fund by pursuing new sources of revenue that may directly or indirectly be linked to the particular project being financed. The southern expansion of the convention center for instance, was accompanied by the successful propositions of a 1/2 cent restaurant tax and a hotel sales tax, with the idea that these two industries are the most likely beneficiaries of increased convention activity. The civil courts building improvement financing was followed by the imposition of a fee on court cases to help offset the cost of debt service. Likewise, the debt service on the Justice Center is being funded in part by reimbursements the City receives from the state for holding prisoners charged with state criminal violations.

Police Department, Forest Park and Recreation leases are funded utilizing sales tax proceeds that are dedicated to those departments. In 2007 and 2008, the City issued $158M in pension bonds supported in part by a new 1/2 cent public safety sales tax approved by voters in February, 2008. Issues related to Recreation Center construction and Police Capital Improvements were also issued last year utilizing sales taxes dedicated for those purposes. Over half of the lease debt service requirements of $69.7 million in FY12 are supported by direct and indirect sources of revenue. Below are debt service requirements for the ensuing fiscal year. From time to time, when economically viable, refinancing of some of these issues may occur.

Tax Increment Financing Projects

Tax Increment Financing (TIF) is a funding mechanism used to support financing of development projects. In a TIF financing, bonds are issued to finance infrastructure and other improvements related to a development project. A portion of the incremental tax revenues resulting from the development are then dedicated to service the debt. In most instances, the debt remains an obligation of the developer and debt service is dependent solely on the incremental taxes to be generated by the project. The City's first TIF project known as St. Louis Marketplace and a more recent project for One City Centre were unique in that City general revenue is to be made available should there be any shortfall in project revenue. So, while the outstanding debt table listed earlier includes all outstanding TIF debt and with the Marketplace debt retired in FY11, only the One City Centre debt remains a potential obligation of the City. Listed below are outstanding estimated debt totals as of the end of FY12 for those TIF projects that have issued debt.

CITY DEBT

In November, 2005, City voters approved additional general obligation debt of $13 million. Issued in 2006, the total outstanding general obligation debt is now $42.7 million. In total, the City remains well under the 10% cap established by the Missouri Constitution. Direct debt supported by property tax levies and City general and capital fund revenue totals $2,275 per capita. Adding outstanding revenue bonds (primarily Airport) brings the debt per capita to $5,302. The City's ability to manage its finances and maintain positive fund balances are key to the City's debt issuance policy. On May 19, 2008, Standard and Poor's Ratings Service upgraded the City's credit rating from A to A+ with a stable outlook and Fitch Ratings upgraded its rating from A- to A. Moody's Investors Service upgraded its rating on City debt from A3 to A2 on May 27, 2008. These improved ratings allow the City to borrow money at lower interest rates, thus resulting in decreased costs. These ratings also serve as a positive indicator for companies and investors looking to do business in the City of St. Louis.

PERSONNEL SUMMARY

PERSONNEL TOTALS FY10 - FY12

Personnel Trends FY11 - FY12

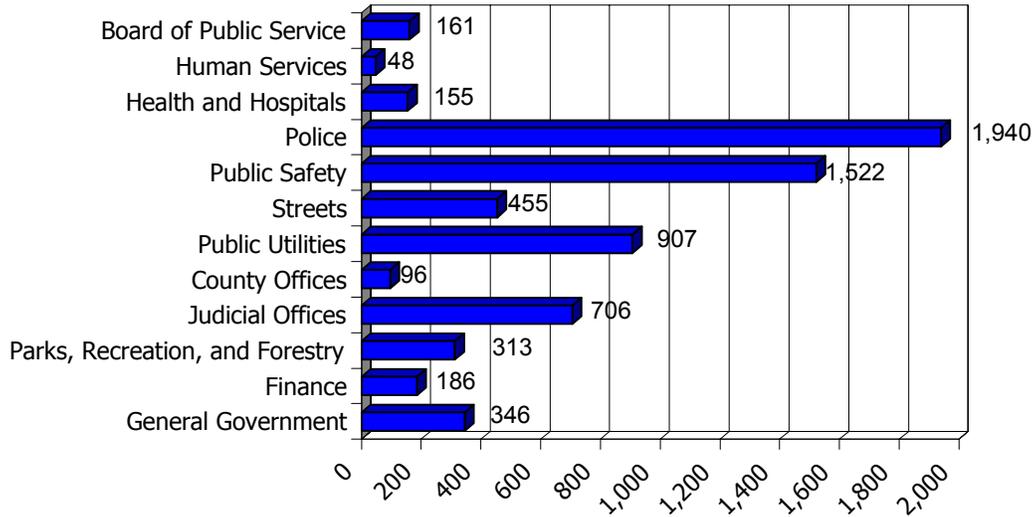

The FY2012 budget proposes an overall reduction in staffing in all funds by a net total of 125 positions. Of this total, 60 positions are in the General Fund. The Fire Department will see a reduction of 45 generally funded positions. However, a grant provided by the U.S. Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) will allow the City to rehire 29 firefighters in the next fiscal year. This will result in a net reduction of 16 positions in the next fiscal year. The Building Division will decline by 19 positions, the Comptroller's Office will decline by 7 positions, and the Department of Corrections/MSI will see a reduction of 6 positions. Other general fund reductions are scattered across most departments.

Among special funds, there is a total reduction of 15 positions in the Local Use Tax fund; all of these are in either the Health Department, the Building Division or the Refuse Division. Minor decreases in special funds are scattered across various departments.

There is a net increase of 14 positions among grant funds due to the FEMA grant. Among the enterprise funds, the City's Water Division staff total has been reduced by 20 positions while the Airport will be reducing its staff by 27 positions in the next fiscal year.

CITY OF ST. LOUIS , MISSOURI CITY PROFILE

City Narrative

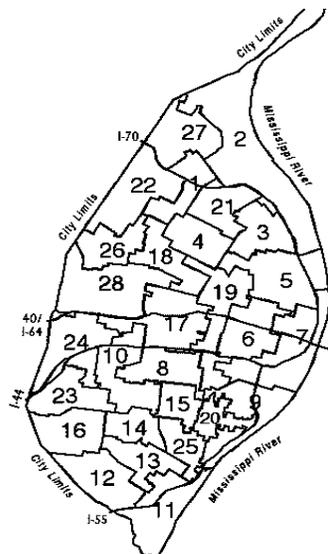

The City of St. Louis is located on the Mississippi River, the eastern boundary of the State of Missouri, just below its confluence with the Missouri River. The City occupies 61.74 square miles of land and its area has remained constant since 1876. The City, a constitutional charter city not part of any county, is organized and exists under and pursuant to its Charter and the Constitution and laws of the State of Missouri.

The City is popularly known as the "Gateway of the West," due to its central location and historic role in the nation's westward expansion. Commemorating this role is the 630 foot stainless steel Gateway Arch, the world's tallest man made monument, which is the focal point of the 86 acre Jefferson National Expansion Memorial on the downtown riverfront.

While the City was originally incorporated as a town in 1809 and a city in 1823, the current City charter was adopted in 1923 by the electorate.
