

CITY OF ST. LOUIS AFFORDABLE HOUSING STUDY, STRATEGY & REPORT

Community Participation Sessions

The city is developing an aligned approach to serve residents with housing needs through its Affordable Housing Study, Strategy and Report. The Community Development Administration (CDA) is heading this effort with Rise Community Development as lead consultant. Community member participation will help us to understand barriers to securing affordable housing as we gather ideas for improving the safety, quality, and availability of housing. Three opportunities to participate are available—simply click on the Zoom meeting link in the right column to join at the designated time.
