Free Tax Day March 7th

ST. LOUIS, February 28, 2012 – First National Bank of St. Louis in conjunction with St. Louis Comptroller Darlene Green is offering a free tax help Wednesday, March 7th, from 5pm to 8pm at the William J. Harrison Center located at 3140 Cass Avenue. Tax help will be provided to the first 40 Missouri and Illinois residents at no cost.

In order to get your taxes prepared, we ask that you come with your photo ID, W2 Forms, Social Security cards, and any other tax related forms. Taxes will be prepared for Individuals only; no business taxes will be handled. The eligible individuals must have an annual income of $50 thousand or less.

In addition to getting tax help, credit repair and home loan specialist will be on hand to answer financial questions. Chaz Saunders of WFUN's FOXY 95.5 will be broadcasting live and giving away prizes. Members from the following businesses and organizations will be on hand to welcome guest and answer questions: First Financial bank of St. Louis, The National Association of Black Accountants-St. Louis Chapter, St. Louis Community College, and Comptroller Darlene Green's office.

Parking is available. The William J. Harrison Center is located at 3140 Cass Avenue. For more information on this event, email or call boycer@stlouiscity.com or call 314-612-1462.
