2010 Holiday Celebration Committee Members again have special celebration planned

This year's Holiday Celebration Committee continues to work hard planning the office's holiday party. It will be a catered event in Room 208 on Dec. 17. We offer a special thanks to the employees serving on the committee: Charron Ford, Emmanuel Kanee, Kristine Kiefer, Scott King and Sandra Mantia. They have another outstanding holiday celebration planned complete with great food, prizes and games. Please remember to R.S.V.P. to Charron or Emmanuel by Dec. 10 so they can get a proper head count.

Public service again runs in the family

Elaine Harris Spearman's nephew, Kevin Q. Harris, was recently appointed a member of the School Health Advisory Council of the Ector County Independent School District in Odessa, Texas where he works as an employee field development coordinator for Halliburton. Harris is a graduate of Alabama State University and recently earned his occupational safety and health technology degree from Odessa College. He also played football with the Indoor Football League's Odessa Roughnecks.

Comptroller's November Employee of the Month

Congratulations to Sandra Keys, executive secretary I in the internal audit section, for earning the November Employee of the Month Award. Keys was nominated for her helpfulness and professionalism while filling in as E&A secretary while Yudora Mason is out on medical leave. She chose eight hours comptime as her award.

Test your knowledge with the Trivia Challenge

The holiday season got us reminiscing about some of our favorite Christmas movies. The December Trivia Challenge asks you to name the Christmas films pictured. Good luck and have a joyous and safe holiday season.

Congratulations to Michele Graham for earning one hour comptime for correctly answering the November elected official trivia.

Submit your answers to John Farrell at farrellj@stlouiscity.com. The first to reply with the correct answers wins one hour comptime.
