WATCH AND PROTECT YOUR TAXPAYER DOLLARS!
BECOME PART OF THE WATCHDOG TEAM!

Theft, asset misappropriations, corruption and fraudulent financial statements are major concerns. Other examples of fraud may include activity involving questionable behavior or business dealings by members of the public, contractors, vendors, agents or city employees that put city revenue, property, information and other assets at risk of waste or abuse.

Anyone who dials the above number will be connected to the city's fraud hotline where you will receive instructions on what information should be included in your fraud report.

Remember, your identity is not required to file a fraud report. If you choose to reveal it, your identity is protected under Missouri law and will be kept confidential by the Comptroller's Office per the City's Fraud Policy.
