a good time to start.
Deadline is April 18.

Robots draw Armstrong to compete

Congratulations to Judy Armstrong's nephew, Andre D. Armstrong, II, on being chosen as one of four students to represent the De La Salle Middle School at St. Matthews robotics program. Armstrong will join advanced students from two other schools to participate in the 14-week robot building and programming club that will culminate in a competition at Southern Illinois University this spring.

Local gifted school accepts LaShae'

Congratulations to Robin Jones' youngest daughter, Amirah LaShae', on her acceptance to Metro Academic & Classical High School.

Metro is one of three full-time gifted schools in the greater St. Louis area. To be eligible, students must score above the 95th percentile in intelligence testing.

Wakeland commits to Quincy University

Vicki Wakeland's niece, Taylor Wakeland, signed a Letter of Intent with the Quincy (Ill.) University Lady Hawks to play soccer in the fall. "Taylor is a dynamic player who is crafty with her attack," said coach Quincy coach Dave Musso. "She is also very technical and has all the abilities to be a dangerous force as an attacking midfielder."

Comptroller's February Employee of the Month

Congratulations to Joanna Stoverink, administrative assistant I in the asset management section, for earning the February Employee of the Month Award. Stoverink was nominated for her work on the 2011 Municipal Telephone Directory. She chose eight hours comptime as her award.

Trivia Challenge

Test your knowledge with the Trivia Challenge

March 17 is St. Patrick's Day, and to celebrate, this month's Trivia Challenge asks you to name the iconic Irish-American men and women pictured below.

May the Luck of the Irish be with you in your quest to win one hour of comptime.

*Congratulations to Megan Mocaby
for earning one hour
comptime for correctly answering the February love song trivia.*

*Submit your answers to John Farrell at farrellj@stlouiscity.com.
The first to reply with the correct answers wins one hour comptime.*
