March 13, 2020

The COVID-19 situation is rapidly evolving. We will reassess the Health Director's order in no more than 30 days.

PROCLAMATION

Pursuant to Article XIII, Section 14-C(c) of the Charter of the City of St. Louis I find that COVID-19, a malignant, infectious, and contagious disease, is threatened in the City of St. Louis, and accordingly I hereby so proclaim. Accordingly, the Director of Health and Hospitals/Health Commissioner may take such steps, use such measures, and incur such expenses as he deems necessary to avoid, suppress, and mitigate that disease until I proclaim the need therefore ended, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the charter or in any ordinance.

Date: 3/13/20

Lyda Krewson, Mayor

ORDER

Pursuant to the authority conferred by Article XIII, Section 14-C(c) Charter of the City of St. Louis and the proclamation of Mayor Lyda Krewson made thereunder, and pursuant to 19 CSR 20-20-050(3), I hereby forbid any public or private assembly in excess of 1,000 persons, with the exception of religious services, until further notice.

Date: 3/13/2020

Dr. Fredrick Echols, Director of Health and Hospitals/Health Commissioner
