

Join us at this FREE conference on November 2.

THE KNOWLEDGE IS POWER CONFERENCE

BLACK WOMEN

BREAST CANCER

- Breast Cancer
- Stress Reduction & Reflexology
- Exercise & Cancer • Nutrition & Cancer
- Young Black Women, Cancer & Your Health
- Performances by Spoken-Word Artists, Singing & Dancing Performances, and more

This Conference is a FREE event, but advanced registration is required. Space is limited to the first 300 registrants—please register early! For more information and to register visit pcs.umsl.edu/bwbc or call (314) 516-5994.

When: 8 AM–2 PM, breakfast & vendor displays begin at 8 AM

Where: Millennium Student Center, UMSL, North Campus

Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Need a Mammogram? The Mammogram Van from Siteman Cancer Center will be offering screenings by appointment from 9 AM–1 PM. Please check with your health care insurance provider to confirm your benefits. Please bring your insurance card with you. Call (314) 747-7222 or (800) 600-3606 to make your appointment today.

Please bring non-perishable canned food to support Food Outreach.

