The SLATE EMPLOYMENT TRANSITION SERIES (SETS), a service provided by the ST. LOUIS AGENCY ON TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT (SLATE), is a professional development event put together for professionals interested in finding local jobs in Information Technology (IT). Attendees of this two hour event will learn about Unisys Corporation's IT project currently underway in downtown St. Louis, the largest in the area. Presenter Kurt Gerstner, Vice-President Unisys Application Modernization Center of Excellence (AMCOE), will devote one hour to a Q&A session and provide his expert insight into the current state of IT in the St. Louis area.

The event will take place Wednesday, September 22, 2010, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., at the United Way of Greater St. Louis, 910 N. 11th Street, St. Louis, MO 63101.

Admission is free but SLATE asks that attendees first register and create a profile at www.MissouriCareerSource.com. Parking is $1 (quarters only) and located at the intersection of Cole and Hadley Streets, directly across from the St. Louis Post Dispatch on the Cole Street side.

For more information, contact Cheryl Jones, Business Developer at SLATE Missouri Career Center, at cjones@stlworks.com.
