WHEREAS, James Malachi Whittico Jr. was born November 18, 1916 in Williamson, West Virginia. His father, James Sr. practiced medicine and his mother Nannie was an educator. Young Whittico graduated from Liberty High School in 1932; received his A.B. with honors from Lincoln University, (Pennsylvania) with honors in 1936 and received his M.D. degree from Meharry Medical College in 1940. He did his internship and senior internship at Homer G. Phillips Hospital (St. Louis) before volunteering for the U.S. Army in 1942; and

WHEREAS, he was the first Black doctor from Missouri to become a military hospital chief surgeon in active combat. He served as Commanding Officer and Chief Surgeon for the hospital of the 93rd Infantry Division and rose to the rank of Lt. Colonel, receiving several military awards that included the Bronze Star Medal for combat service in the Southwest Pacific Theater; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Whittico has received numerous gubernatorial and presidential appointments. In 1968 Dr. Whittico served as president of the National Medical Association. President Lyndon B. Johnson accepted Dr. Whittico's invitation to address the NMA. This was the first time in history that a sitting president of the United States had visited and addressed the convention at one of its sessions. While president, the NMA was awarded a multi-million dollar grant from the National Institute of Health to recruit African Americans to medical schools; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Whittico has been a devoted disciple and servant leader of Central since joining in 1948. His numerous civic and community involvement never hampered him serving God and Central. He served as church physician in the basement of the old historic church before that fateful fire. Dr. Whittico has served Central in numerous capacities since 1948. His latest published work is the Historical Forward to Central's 2011 Church Directory. In 2010 he was elevated to chairman Emeritus of Central's Health Ministry; and

WHEREAS, he and his wife Gloria (Thompson) are the proud parents of Jarrhet M. Whittico and Joi Whittico-Kalkbrenner (Jim) and have grandchildren, John and Julia Kalkbrenner.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize James Malachi Whittico Jr. and we wish him continued success, achievement and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 157

Bernice Jones

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that on Thursday, October 25, 2012, Bernice Jones will be recognized by the residents of the Twenty-Second Ward with the presentation of the Good Neighbor Award; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Jones has resided in this neighborhood at 5956 Romaine Pl. for more than 54 years and she is recognized and respected for her dedication to the preservation and stabilization of her neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, Dairy Queen was demolished in 1964 at the location of 1374 Hodiamont Ave leaving the lot as an eyesore due to litter. After realizing that the lot would be neglected and nothing built on the site for years, Ms. Jones and her neighbors began to maintain it. She wanted a neighborhood garden and finally it was officially started in 1985 with the permission of the Land Reutilization Authority; and

WHEREAS, she has had to use her own personal money to help finance the project because of inability to get other financial assistance; and

WHEREAS, Bernice Jones has a great spirit of community service by being present and always willing to help her neighbors and the City of St. Louis is a model for the citizenry we need to rebuild a better St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Jones is an exceptional member of this community and we greatly appreciate her commitment to her neighborhood and to the entire City of St. Louis.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis, that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and congratulate Bernice Jones and we thank her for her continuing efforts to improve the quality of life for the residents of this City and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy for presentation to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 158

Michael Latchison

WHEREAS, in July 1985 through divine inspiration of the Holy Spirit, God charged Brother Michael Latchison, "to lift up a standard for the people in love" through his gift of minstrel. His bold acceptance coupled with his strong-will determination to press towards the mark manifested the: The Michael Latchison Singing Ministry; and

WHEREAS, we salute Brother Michael Latchison for his established 26 years of faithfulness to his charge maintained by Love; and

WHEREAS, we commend the Michael Latchison Singing Ministry family for their impact within the City of Saint Louis. We recognize their expansion from a traditional faith based approach into a community outreach approach, including; missions specific for those who are confined in nursing homes; their success to uplift children's self esteem through "back-pack" to school drives; and

WHEREAS, we believe that the Michael Latchison Singing Ministry motto: "A Family Bonded Together By Love" can be authenticated by Brother Michael Latchison's 26 years of commitment and accomplishments beginning with his organization of the "The Love Center Choir", as a student at Irving Elementary Public School; organizing "The Beaumont High School Gospel Choir" during his tenure as a St. Louis Public School District employee; the formalizing of "The Michael Latchison Singing Ensemble" created for the graduates seeking to maintain a positive social environment; and the birth of The Michael Latchison Singing Ministry, organized to include "whosoever will let them come"; and

WHEREAS, we commend the Michael Latchison Singing Ministry for their performance; to the servicemen of Scott Air Force Base; advancement as a McDonald Gospel Fest semi-finalist; the Live Recording CD, Project: "The Michael Latchison Singers, Jesus I'll Never Forget" and the note worthy collaborations with renown recording artists such as, Tremaine Graham, Malcolm Williams & the Great Voice, Saint Louis' own, Evangelist Garnell Hubbard-Spearman and the Late James Cleveland; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize opera Michael Latchison and we wish him continued success, achievement and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 159
Belt Loop Confectionary and Package Liquor

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that on Thursday, October 25, 2012, Belt Loop Confectionary and Package Liquor will be recognized by the residents of the Twenty-Second Ward with the presentation of the Good Neighbor Award for a Business; and

WHEREAS, Belt Loop opened in September of 1991, by Norma J. Walker. On the way home from work Ms. Walker passed an empty store front (5501 St. Louis Avenue) located around the corner from her residence (5740 Roosevelt). With only $250.00 she negotiated terms with the owner, researched and did the leg work necessary to secure a business license; and

WHEREAS, every dime that wasn't used for bills was recycled over and over into more stock. She went to the wholesale house daily. About a year later, Ms. Walker did the foot work to obtain the neighborhood's consent to receive a liquor license. Ms. Walker's temporary job turned into a permanent job offer, which she turned down to work full time developing her own business; and

WHEREAS, Belt Loop will always have an obligation to its youngest customers because that's who supported them at the start. Every Halloween, Easter and Christmas, Belt Loop gives candy bags free to the children in their neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, for fifteen years they put on a customer appreciation day that is always an outstanding event. They provide free BBQ, beverages, limo rides, pony rides, goats, sheep, clowns, outdoor amusement equipment, tee shirts, jackets, etc. to all our neighbors for a day of fun once a year. Unfortunately, economics changed, as well as, their customer base, therefore, they had to change their strategy. They continue to provide their customers with yearly calendars and small tokens throughout the year to show their appreciation for their patronage; and

WHEREAS, Belt Loop believes in being a good citizen. They watch out for their neighbors, residents and businesses by reporting suspicious behavior. They have acted as a safe haven for neighborhood children that might be in distressful situation. Belt Loop provides a safe place for all to shop by having a no tolerance policy in regards to loitering around their business; and

WHEREAS, Belt Loop has assisted many families in the neighborhood with financial support, i.e. school supplies, school clothing, funeral cost, headstones, fire victims and Christmas toys. They look out for our seniors that might need something, but can't make it to the store by making delivery runs when necessary; and

WHEREAS, they have worked with the City of St. Louis to put on a job fair in the Wells-Goodfellow neighborhood. They have sponsored and donated to many National Night Outs; and

WHEREAS, Belt Loop believes in making their community look attractive. They take responsibility for cleaning the vacant lot across from the business. They don't believe in defacing the outside of their building with advertising and work to keep their property neat, attractive and well lit.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the contributions of Belt Loop Confectionary and Package Liquor and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 160
Ms. Jacqueline Hutchinson

WHEREAS, WHEREAS, we pause to honor Jacqueline (Jackie) Hutchinson for her over 30 years working in field community action, specifically with Community Action Agency of St. Louis County-City Services (CAASTL-City Services) and HDC; and

WHEREAS, during her long career she met the national standards for community action leadership by achieving Certified Community Action Professional (CCAP) certification; and

WHEREAS, Jackie provided much needed leadership in forming the Community Access Pilot, which lead to the St. Louis Regional Unbanked Task Force and on a national level lead to participation in banking and financial literacy policy; and

WHEREAS, she also has extensive experience in implementing consumer energy programs and working with diverse boards of energy, banking, technological focused organizations; and

WHEREAS, over the years she has received many awards, including the Sister Pat Kelley Award-National Fuel Funds Network in 2009, Community Services Award-Top Ladies of Distinction in 2005, Meritorious Community Services Award-Legal Aid of Eastern Missouri in 1985 and many more; and

WHEREAS, not resting on her laurels, Jackie has embraced a new endeavor having recently been appointed as Vice President of Operations for "Peoples Community Action Corporation", the new non-profit created by People's Health Centers.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and praise the tremendous contributions Jacqueline (Jackie) Hutchinson has made to our city, our community, and the entire region. We further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 161
Walgreens Expressions Challenge

WHEREAS, our city and nation's future depends on the health and integrity of young people across the region who will be our leaders of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, to promote healthy responsible decisions by our youth, the Walgreens Company has established the Walgreens Expressions Challenge; and

WHEREAS, the Walgreens Expressions Challenge is a contest established for high school teenagers, ages 14 to 18 to engage in conversation about healthy choices for their future through creative expression; and

WHEREAS, teens still face many challenges when it comes to having open, productive conversations about sexual health with their parents, teachers and other adult figures in their lives. Open and healthy conversations are still very much needed for teens for effective change; and

WHEREAS, the Expressions Challenge motivates teens to voice their opinions on topics including 'self-esteem', 'teen pregnancy', 'STD awareness and prevention', 'abstinence' and "sexual responsibility"; and

WHEREAS, in the six years the Walgreens Expressions Challenge has been held in St. Louis and Chicago the 'Challenge' has reached more than 500,000 teens; and

WHEREAS, the "Challenge" has awarded over $70,000 in cash and prizes to winners, entrants, teachers, schools and organizations.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and praise the teens who participate in the Walgreens Expressions Challenge. Also we recognize the important contribution Walgreens and the Walgreens Expressions Challenge continues to make in the development of our youth. We further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

NOTICE TO ALL BIDDERS

CITY ORDINANCE requires that any individual or company who performs work within the City limits must obtain a Business License. This would also apply to businesses who employ sales or delivery personnel to come into the City. Contracts requiring work to be performed in the City will NOT be awarded to unlicensed businesses.

ST. LOUIS LIVING WAGE ORDINANCE

LIVING WAGE REQUIREMENTS

Bidders [Proponents] are hereby advised that the St. Louis Living Wage Ordinance #65597 and associated Regulations apply to the service [concession] [lease] [City Financial Assistance] for which [bids] [proposals] are being sought herein. This Ordinance requires that, unless specific exemptions apply, all individuals who perform work pursuant to a contract executed between the successful [bidder] [proponent] and the City [Agency] must be paid a minimum of the applicable Living Wage rates set forth in the attached Living Wage Bulletin, and, if the rates are adjusted during the term of the contract pursuant to the Ordinance, applicable rates after such adjustment is made. Each bidder [proponent] must submit the attached "Living Wage Acknowledgment and Acceptance Declaration" with the bid [proposal]. Failure to submit this Declaration with the bid [proposal] will result in rejection of the bid [proposal]. A successful bidder's [proponent's] failure to comply with contract provisions related to the Living Wage Ordinance may result in termination of the contract and the imposition of additional penalties as set forth in the Ordinance and Regulations.
