(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property may take into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, handicap or familial status.

(2) Discrimination Against Persons With Disabilities. For purposes of this subsection, the term "discriminatory practice" includes:

(a) discrimination against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection with such dwelling, or in the sale or rental or otherwise making unavailable or denying a dwelling to any buyer or renter because of a handicap of:

(i) that person; or

(ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented, or made available; or

(iii) any person associated with that person, provided, however, that a refusal to make available a unit for rent shall not be a discriminatory practice if such potential renter, the person with one or more disabilities, or a person on behalf of a person with disabilities seeks modifications to the rental property but the potential renter is unable or unwilling to pay the expense of such modifications or provide the agreement to restore the premises, where it is reasonable to do so, in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph 2(b) below.

(b) a refusal to permit, at the expense of a person with disabilities, or another person on behalf of a person with disabilities, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such person with disabilities, if such modifications may be necessary or desirable to afford the person with disabilities full enjoyment of the premises, except that, in the case of a rental unit, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted;

(c) a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when such accommodation may be necessary to afford such person an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; and

Notwithstanding the above, compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standard for buildings and facilities providing accessibility for persons with physical disabilities (commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1") suffices to satisfy certain requirements of the Fair Housing Act and its implementing regulations, and nothing in this section shall require a dwelling to be made available to a person whose occupancy would cause a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

(3) Exemptions.

(a) None of the provisions of subsection (C) of section 9, except subparagraph (C)(1)(f) thereof, shall apply to:

(i) any single-family house sold or rented by an owner, provided that: such private individual owner does not own more than three single-family dwellings at any one time; that in the case of the sale of any single-family dwelling by a private owner who was not the most recent resident of such house prior to such sale, the exemption granted herein shall apply only with respect to one such sale within any twenty-four month period, if such bona fide private individual owner does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved any interest on his behalf, under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or rental of, or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of, more than three single-family dwellings at one time; the sale or rental of any single family dwelling shall be excepted from the application of this subsection only if such house is sold or rented (A) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent, or salesman, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee or agent of any such broker, agent, salesman, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee or agent of any such broker, and (B) without the publication, posting or mailing, after notice, of any advertisement or written notice in violation of paragraph (1)(f) of this subsection; except that nothing herein shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, and other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer title; or

(ii) rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his residence.

(b) Nothing in subsection (C) of section 9 shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such person, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, color, national origin or disability. Nor shall anything in this subchapter prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members.

(c) The provisions of subsection (C) of section 9 regarding familial status shall not apply with respect to housing for older persons.

(E) DISCRIMINATION IN CITY ACTIVITIES OR PROGRAMS.

No person shall, on the ground of race, marital status, color, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, familial status, disability, national origin or ancestry, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving funding or other financial assistance or relief directly or indirectly from the City of St. Louis.

(F) UNLAWFUL INTIMIDATION OR RETALIATION.

It shall be a prohibited discriminatory practice for any person, directly or indirectly, to discriminate, coerce, intimidate, threaten, interfere with, or retaliate against any person because he has: opposed any practice made unlawful by this Ordinance; has exercised his rights, or encouraged another to exercise his rights under this Ordinance; or because he has filed a complaint, cooperated with an investigation of an alleged prohibited discriminatory practice, testified at a hearing held by the Commission, or otherwise assisted in any proceeding under this Ordinance.

(G) UNLAWFUL INTERFERENCE.

It shall be unlawful to interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of his having exercised or enjoyed, rights granted and protected by this ordinance.

(H) EXEMPTIONS.

1. Nothing in this Ordinance shall limit the applicability of any reasonable local, State or Federal restrictions regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling, nor shall any provision of this Ordinance regarding familial status apply with respect to Housing for Older Persons.

2. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prohibit conduct against a Person because such Person has been convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance as defined by State and Federal law.

3. A Person shall not be held personally liable for monetary damages for a violation of this Ordinance if such Person reasonably relied, in good faith, on the application of the exemption under this section relating to Housing for Older Persons. For the purpose of this subparagraph 3, a Person may only show good faith reliance on the application of this exemption by showing that:

(a) such Person has no actual knowledge that the facility or community is not or will not be eligible for such exemption; and

(b) the facility or community has stated formally, in writing, that the facility or community complies with the requirements for such exemption.

SECTION SIX. Severability Clause. The provisions of this ordinance shall be severable. In the event that any provision of this ordinance is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, the remaining provisions of this ordinance are valid unless the court finds the valid provisions of this ordinance are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so dependent upon, the void provision that it cannot be presumed that the Board of Aldermen would have enacted the valid provisions without the void ones or unless the Court finds that the valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent.

SECTION SEVEN. Emergency Clause. This being an ordinance for the preservation of public peace, health and safety, it is hereby declared to be an emergency measure within the meanings of Sections 19 and 20 of article IV of the Charter of the City of St. Louis and therefore shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor.
