10   Louis are hereby repealed.

11   SECTION FORTY.                   Business License and Permit Revocation.

12        A.    Revocation by Board of Public Service. Every business license issued pursuant to 13            Title 8 of the Revised Code of the City of Saint Louis, any Occupancy Permit,
14            and any other permit or waiver issued by the City of St. Louis may be revoked, 15            for cause, by the Board of Public Service at any time upon notice and hearing.

16            Before revoking any such license, permit, or waiver, the Board of Public Service 17            shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth the procedures it will follow in 18            any such revocation proceeding.

19        B.    Revocation by the Board of Public Service initiated by Neighborhood Petition

20            1.    Petition for Hearing. The Board of Public Service, upon receipt by the 21            Secretary of the Board of Public Service, of a petition signed by either a

1 twenty-five (25) percent of the persons owning real property (or any 2 portion thereof) or twenty-five (25) percent of the registered voters
3 occupying property within a prescribed petition circle drawn with a radius 4 of five hundred (500) feet from the center of said premises, alleging that 5 the operation of the premises involved is being operated in such manner, 6 as factually set out in said petition, to constitute a detriment to the 7 neighborhood, shall hold a public hearing based on said petition.

8 2. Hearing Notice. The Board of Public Service shall set a reasonable time 9 for the hearing on said petition, shall give adequate public notice thereof,
10 and shall give notice to the person or persons holding the business license
11 and permit at issue in writing with a copy of said petition by Certified 12 Mail.

13 3. Verification of Petition Signatures. The Board of Public Service shall 14 appoint one of its employees to check the petition filed in each proceeding
15 and verify the signatures appearing thereon with the property owners 16 whose names appear on the Assessor's records, or the registered voters 17 whose names appear on the Board of Election Commissioner's records, as 18 the case may be, and if such persons constitute a majority of property 19 owners or registered voters in said petition circle. A report thereof shall 20 be made at the public hearing before any testimony is received at said 21 hearing.

22 4. Hearing Conduct. The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as

1 the Board of Public Service conducts its weekly public meetings. The 2 Board of Public Service shall provide a reasonable opportunity for the 3 holder of the business license or permit to present the holder's position
4 concerning the petition, and for the petitioners to present their opposition 5 to the business license or permit. If a majority of the Members of the 6 Board of Public Service present at said hearing on the petition shall decide 7 that the operation of the premises involved constitutes a detriment to the 8 neighborhood, they shall set out in their written order the facts on which 9 their decision is based and the time limit or conditions of suspension, or 10 revocation of said business license and permit. A copy of said order shall 11 be published in the City Journal and sent by Certified Mail to the owner or 12 operator of the premises involved. Any person adversely affected by said 13 order shall have a right of Judicial Review as provided by § 536.100, 14 RSMo.

15 C. Other Enforcement Provisions Unaffected. No provision of this Ordinance shall 16 be construed in any way to alter, subordinate, or otherwise affect or in any way 17 limit the rights of the City of St. Louis to enforce any other law which might be 18 applicable to the subject premises. The City of St. Louis may initiate an action in 19 municipal court or circuit court to enforce provisions of the Code and may seek, 20 as a remedy for violation of the Code, the revocation of any business license, 21 occupancy permit, or other permit issued by the city.
