President Reed introduced Resolutions No. 32 through No. 49 and No. 52 through No. 53 and the Clerk was instructed to read same.

Resolution No. 32

Roxie Mitchell

WHEREAS, Roxie Mitchell is the founder of Girlfriends in Action (G.I.A.) which empowers women's health; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Mitchell's career with a major airline has not affected her passion for helping others. G.I.A all started when Roxie began hosting small gatherings with her sisters and closest girlfriends at her apartment several times a year. During those times the conversation would always touch on women's health concerns and how to bring a greater awareness to more women in regards to these serious issues, this was just the beginning; and

WHEREAS, last year G.I.A. hosted its 6th annual, no cost, luncheon on "Breast and Ovarian Cancer Awareness." Approximately 125 ladies attended the luncheon; and

WHEREAS, G.I.A is pleased to continue empowering women's health by hosting its 7th annual luncheon entitled, "LOVE YOUR HEART". Heart disease is the #1 killer among women; and

WHEREAS, the Girlfriend's in Action Luncheon is Ms. Mitchell's way of giving back by helping others and saving lives.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Roxie Mitchell for her many achievements and we direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to further prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 33

Trinitee Simpson

WHEREAS, First Lady Michelle Obama announced one year ago an ambitious national goal of solving the challenge of childhood obesity within a generation so that children born today will reach adulthood at a healthy weight. In response to this announcement, the campaign known as Let's Move has been adopted by cities across the United States; and

WHEREAS, her concern over childhood obesity stems from the fact over the past three decades, childhood obesity rates in America have tripled, and today, nearly one in three children in America are overweight or obese. One third of all children born in 2000 or later will suffer from diabetes at some point in their lives; many others will face chronic obesity-related health problems like heart disease, high blood pressure, cancer, and asthma; and

WHEREAS, Missouri has been rated the 9th worst state for childhood obesity. According to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, 29% of high school students are overweight or obese and 31% of those ages 10 to 17 are overweight; and

WHEREAS, St. Louis City, a newly recognized Let's Move City, has taken up the challenge to address childhood obesity. Through several programs and initiatives, Let's Move has worked diligently to empower students, parents, teachers and the community with the tools, knowledge and confidence to adopt healthier lifestyle choice and seek ways to become physically fit; and

WHEREAS, Let's Move St. Louis will promote opportunities for physical activity, access to healthy, affordable food and quality affordable health care, utilizing a variety of coeducational prevention and intervention mediums while increase community awareness and development; and

WHEREAS, Trinitee Simpson has contributed the betterment of the St. Louis region through involvement in Let's Move St. Louis.

NOW THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Let's Move St. Louis and Trinitee Simpson for their efforts to end childhood obesity and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to include a copy of this Resolution in the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 37

Dinetta Givens

WHEREAS, First Lady Michelle Obama announced one year ago an ambitious national goal of solving the challenge of childhood obesity within a generation so that children born today will reach adulthood at a healthy weight. In response to this announcement, the campaign known as Let's Move has been adopted by cities across the United States; and

WHEREAS, her concern over childhood obesity stems from the fact over the past three decades, childhood obesity rates in America have tripled, and today, nearly one in three children in America are overweight or obese. One third of all children born in 2000 or later will suffer from diabetes at some point in their lives; many others will face chronic obesity-related health problems like heart disease, high blood pressure, cancer, and asthma; and

WHEREAS, Missouri has been rated the 9th worst state for childhood obesity. According to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, 29% of high school students are overweight or obese and 31% of those ages 10 to 17 are overweight; and

WHEREAS, St. Louis City, a newly recognized Let's Move City, has taken up the challenge to address childhood obesity. Through several programs and initiatives, Let's Move has worked diligently to empower students, parents, teachers and the community with the tools, knowledge and confidence to adopt healthier lifestyle choice and seek ways to become physically fit; and

WHEREAS, Let's Move St. Louis will promote opportunities for physical activity, access to healthy, affordable food and quality affordable health care, utilizing a variety of coeducational prevention and intervention mediums while increase community awareness and development; and

WHEREAS, Dinetta Givens has contributed the betterment of the St. Louis region through involvement in Let's Move St. Louis.

NOW THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Let's Move St. Louis and Dinetta Givens for their efforts to end childhood obesity and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to include a copy of this Resolution in the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Charlie Wilson

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that Charlie Wilson will be performing this Mother's

Day Weekend at the Chafietz Arena, for the St. Louis Super Music Fest 2011; and

WHEREAS, when you hear Grammy-nominated artist Charlie Wilson's voice it reminds you of both the past and the present. He is one of the few artists whose vocal style and performance continue to influence some of today's most popular artists including R. Kelly, Justin Timberlake, Snoop Dogg, and Kanye West; and

WHEREAS, Charles Kent 'Charlie' Wilson (born January 29, 1953) is an American R&B singer-songwriter-producer and the former lead vocalist for the Gap Band. As a solo artist he has been nominated for four Grammy awards, received a 2009 Soul Train Icon Award, and a recipient of a BMI Icon Award in 2005; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, Mr. Wilson was named Billboard Magazine's #1 Adult R&B Artist, and his song "There Goes My Baby" was named the #1 Urban Adult Song for 2009 in Billboard Magazine; and

WHEREAS, in December 2010, Just Charlie, was released and spawned the hit single "You Are" which held the #1 spot on the Billboard Urban Adult Contemporary chart for 13 weeks as well as 15 weeks consecutively on the Mediabase chart; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wilson is the national spokesperson for the Prostate Cancer Foundation (PCF.) As of July 2009, the PCF has raised over $380 million for research and funded more than 1,500 research projects at nearly 200 institutions worldwide. The PCF has set up a Creativity Award in Mr. Wilson's name which donates hundreds of thousands of dollars a year to researchers across the country. The Creativity Award allows for the development of creative science which conforms to PCF funding principles but is short-term and designed to allow development of otherwise unfunded but good ideas.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Charlie Wilson for his many achievements and we wish him continued success and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Affectionately known as the “begging sister,” she eagerly pursued donations which have supported the endeavors of the Little Sisters, especially their well-known elderly center in North St. Louis City; and

WHEREAS, after 30 years of service to the St. Louis community, she will now return to her hometown and will be surrounded by numerous members of her family.

NOW THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Sister Irene Marie for her quick wit, engaging smile and dedication to the Little Sisters of the Poor and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to include a copy of this Resolution in the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
