WHEREAS, in 1922, a group of diligent citizens called The Central School Patron Association, with Rev. George Stevens, and several other community alliances started plans for a second high school that would be built and designated for African-American students. It was the

Specifically, it was named for George Boyer Vashon (1824-1878), the very first African-American graduate of Oberlin College (Ohio) in 1844 and his son, John B. Vashon (1854-1924), an outstanding educator in the City of St. Louis for over 34 years; and

WHEREAS, Vashon High School seeks to honor its graduates who through their achievement and outstanding contributions to the community have distinguished themselves in the community-at-large; and

WHEREAS, the Annual Vashon High School Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be held on Sunday, June 9, 2013 at 4:00 p.m. in the Julius C. Dix Auditorium; and

WHEREAS, the criteria for nomination is that the inductee must be a graduate of Vashon High School whose graduation year is 1998 or before and the inductee should have made a notable contribution to the welfare and programs of Vashon and/or an exemplary or significant impact in some chosen field on the community; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Mr. John Edward LaGrone and we wish the honoree continued success, achievement and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 62
Breaking Through

WHEREAS, in the film Breaking Through, openly LGBT elected officials at all levels - including the first gay US Senator, Tammy Baldwin - share their stories of self-doubt and triumph over multiple barriers ranging from race and poverty to gender and sexual orientation, revealing a deeply personal, rarely-seen side of politicians and gay people; and

WHEREAS, though featuring politicians, it isn't about politics: it's about people who feel fear and shame, yearning to live meaningful lives; and

WHEREAS, they reveal with surprising vulnerability how they broke through internal and external barriers to achieve the future they envisioned. By showing that "anything is possible," they impact those from any walk of life who are struggling and seek to prevent them from taking their own lives or living in repressed, depressed conditions; and

WHEREAS, Cindy L. Abel formed Atlantis Moon Productions in 2007 to develop film-related projects that launch conversations and impact popular culture. Her first full-length documentary, the award-winning film Breaking Through, was conceived in response to the high number of teens who were taunted because of being gay or perceived to be and committing suicide. Having struggled with coming out, Abel knew the importance of having positive role models and wanted to highlight openly LGBT leaders living authentic and fulfilled lives.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the film Breaking Through and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
