Mr. Wessels introduced Resolutions No. 89 through 120 and the Clerk was instructed to read same.

Resolution No. 89

Elder Nathaniel Smith

WHEREAS, in 1975 Elder Nathaniel Smith was appointed Pastor of Fountain Temple Church of God in Christ at 4832 Fountain Avenue at Bayard; and

WHEREAS, in April 2, 1995 Elder Smith led the saints into its new edifice at 1138 Bayard Avenue; and

WHEREAS, on July 28, 2013 there will be a mortgage burning ceremony; and

WHEREAS, Elder Smith has pastored Fountain Temple longer than any of his predecessors. This is the second of two buildings the church has paid off under his leadership; and

WHEREAS, current and former members, many families and friends of Fountain Temple have shown continued support through participating in and contributing to various Building Fund Drives that have been held over the years. Elder Smith spent several years supporting fundraising drives for both building by selling watermelons, peanuts and pecans; and

WHEREAS, Elder Smith, 87 years old, and Mother Annie Metcalfe, 90 years old, are the last two survivors of the original Fountain Temple Church of God in Christ.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen for the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the many contributions of Elder Nathaniel Smith and direct the Clerk of this Board to prepare a commemorative copy of this resolution to the end that it may be presented to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the sponsor.

Honorable Lyda Krewson, Alderwoman 28th Ward
"Happy Hour"

WHEREAS, "Happy Hour" began production in St. Louis in July 2013. The script is helmed by critically acclaimed writer/director Chrys Yvette ("A Woman's Worth" and "The Dating Game"), executive produced by Thomas Jones and Chrys Yvette, produced by Jerrin L. DeLoatch, Trae Ireland, associate produced by Shar Ross and Stephen "Stix" Josey along with governmental relations director, Cheryl Dozier; and

WHEREAS, on the heels of the St. Louis debut of "The Dating Game" and the recent hit national stage play "A Woman's Worth" starring Dorien Wilson, formerly of UPN's "The Parkers", and the Queen of Inspiration, Ann Nesby, the movie will be released in the spring of 2014; and

WHEREAS, "Happy Hour" is based on Yvette's hit stageplay "The Dating Game" and stars famous comedian Guy Torry (The Animal) who is also a St. Louis native; along with national comedian Dannon Green (Baby Boy, Everybody Hates Chris), who previously starred in Yvette's hit stageplay "A Woman's Worth"; and

WHEREAS, other cast members include producer/actor Trae Ireland (Cleaver Family Reunion, Holla II), St. Louis legendary radio personality Calvin Davis ("Calvin The Get Down King"), Sineta Roker, Doug Fesler, 95.5 FM DJ Deevine Soundz of Radio One, and a host of other familiar faces in the entertainment industry including Chrys Yvette as lounge owner, Rita Mosely; and

WHEREAS, the soundtrack music supervisor is John Chiles IV of Chilesplay Entertainment and executive produced by Chuck Thomas and Chrys Yvette. The soundtrack will feature some of St. Louis' very own icons such as Kim Massie, Kyjuan and Murphy Lee of the St. Lunatics, Rochelle "Coco Soul" Walker, gospel artist Pam Green, and many more local and national artists; and

WHEREAS, the center of each character's relationship is the hilarious revelation that comes about in their interaction with the owner of Rita's Lounge self-proclaimed life coach, Rita Mosely, who could use a few sessions of her own.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize "Happy Hour" and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

WHEREAS, Wanda was educated in the St. Louis Public School System and graduated from Charles Sumner High School. Wanda loved to learn and was dedicated to pushing the importance of education. She was the first in the family to receive a Master's Degree. She attended Lindenwood University; and

WHEREAS, Wanda was a woman of many talents and very versatile and whatever she put her hands to prospered, she shared and utilized her gifts with everyone. She was a pillar in the community, demanded respect and taught life lessons as they were presented. Wanda was employed as an accountant for the federal government. Her federal work career had been devoted to serving the Department of Defense. She also worked in the Department of Finance and Accounting, and retired after 22 years due to health complications; and

WHEREAS, after several bouts of illness, she was called home to glory April 25, 2013 at 8:15 am. She fought a good fight and kept the faith, now she's gone on to the next phase in this spiritual journey. She already accomplished all of her earthly deeds and was ready to breathe with ease; and

WHEREAS, Wanda confessed her faith in Christ and was baptized early in her childhood at Antioch Baptist Church. Growing in her spiritual walk, she yoked up with "Big Thunda" and became an active member of the Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church. She got busy working on the Pastor's Aid and other auxiliaries until she was called home; and

WHEREAS, Wanda was admired by so many for the humanitarian qualities she possessed and shared with everyone. She was truly the epitome of the old adage "Let the Good that I Do Speak for Me!" She loved life and lived it to the fullest. Always reminding herself and others "Without Faith, it is impossible to please God" and she aimed to please God! Wanda was a treasure to know. If you met her, you were far from being a stranger and if you saw her you were greeted with a smile and the TRUTH, where you wanted it or not. The world lost a legacy of love with Wanda's Exodus. However her home going is truly a Heaven gain; and

WHEREAS, Wanda was preceded in death by both her parents, Hughes and Geneva Carter, by her three brothers: her twin-Wildord Carter, John Willis and Eugene Wiley; and

WHEREAS, she leaves to mourn her exodus: her three children Tonya, Toney and Tajuana; her (5) grandchildren Alexis Wade, Mekhi Draper, Chloe" Abram, Toney Draper Jr., and Tavaughna Draper; (2) sisters Mary Alice Bonds (Wendell), Ida Jean Carter; 2 sister in laws Brenda Carter, Ruth Carter; 4 brothers Hughes Jr. (Barbara), William Carter, B. Ellis Carter, Leroy Carter all of St. Louis, and a host of other family, nieces, nephews, God-children, and many of friends.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause to remember the many contributions of Wanda Whitlock-Kincade to the citizens of the City of St. Louis and we join with her many friends in expressing our sorrow at her passing, and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation to the Kincade family, at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Bishop Edwin C. Bass

WHEREAS, on Friday, August 16, 2013 at the Ritz Carlton in Clayton, Missouri, there will be an Inaugural Celebration Banquet for the Reappointed President, COGIC Urban Initiatives and Reappointed White House Liaison, Church of God In Christ Bishop Edwin C. Bass; and

WHEREAS, the Keynote Speaker will be Bishop Charles E. Blake, Sr., Presiding Bishop, Church of God In Christ; and

WHEREAS, a native of western Pennsylvania, Bishop Edwin Bass is the eighth of ten children born to the late Supt. Joseph E. Bass, Sr. and Missionary Mary V. Bass; and

WHEREAS, along with Bishop Bass, his wife, daughter, maternal grandfather, father, mother, four brothers, one sister and three nephews comprise a historical ministerial lineage with over 400 years of combined service to the Church of God in Christ; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Bass is an alumnus of Colgate University in Hamilton, New York. Also as a foreign exchange student, he attended Panjab University in Chandigarh, India. Later he attended Harvard University. In the secular world, he served as Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Blue Cross Blue Shield; and

WHEREAS, as the visionary founder and pastor of The Empowered Church COGIC in St. Louis, Bishop Bass works closely with his Jurisdictional Prelate, Bishop R. J. Ward of the Eastern Missouri First Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction serving as Administrative Assistant. The Empowered Church is a beacon of hope within the Spanish Lake community of St. Louis, where this progressive ministry continues to grow and flourish. The Descending Dove Community Development Corporation provides programming and other resources to the community at large; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Bass also serves the Church of God In Christ as: President, COGIC Urban Initiatives, chair of the Social Justice & Theology Council, member of the Presiding Bishop's Executive Committee, member of the Senior Executive Planning Commission, member of the Presiding Bishop's Voter Initiative Committee, member of the Simul-Conference Committee, White House Liaison, member of the Quality Assurance Team and Mason Street Project Board member. He has been privileged to meet with President Barack Obama and Vice President Joe Biden on several occasions; and

WHEREAS, on November 11, 2012 in the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis, he was consecrated as a bishop, assigned to serve as an auxiliary bishop in the Eastern Missouri First Jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, with an enduring commitment to establishing community, Bishop Bass has served tirelessly on the boards of the United Way of Greater St. Louis, St. Louis Transitional Hope House, Lindenwood University, Grace Hill Economic Development Corporation, the Urban League of St. Louis, the U.S. Justice Department's Operation Weed and Seed, the Christian Hospital Ethics Committee and the Colgate University Alumni Corporation. Among numerous honors and awards, Bishop Bass was featured in Speaking of People in Ebony Magazine. He is nationally known for coining the phrase, "I Won't Be Silent Anymore!" and for authoring a book by that name; and

WHEREAS, during the 2010 Holy Convocation, Bishop Bass was presented 'The Presiding Bishop's Medal' for his work in COGIC Urban Initiatives; and

WHEREAS, the greatest asset to his professional and personal life is his beloved wife of 41 years, Missionary Jessie Miller Bass. As young children, they had the prophetic experience of being saved in the same revival service. They are the blessed parents of Sean, Craig, and

Courtney and proud grandparents of Kyng Cleveland, Paige Bass and Hannah Bass. Ten years ago they lost their eldest son, Sean Edwin, through a random and heinous act of violence. From the pain and scars of this family tragedy, Pastor and Missionary Bass have emerged with tremendous insight and empathy into the hurts and wounds of others, and have thereby enlarged their capacity for ministry; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Bass is especially energized by the opportunity to serve as President of COGIC Urban Initiatives because he is dedicated to building the Kingdom of God through the Church that he has cherished and participated in for a lifetime. In his words, "This is an opportunity to bring a lifetime of learning and experience to bear on behalf of the Church I love and under the direction of an awesome, visionary leader, Bishop Charles Edward Blake, Sr."; and

WHEREAS, those who know Bishop Bass well can attest to his intellectual and leadership competencies, but they are more profoundly impressed by his deep sense of loyalty, integrity, humility and fervor for the things of God.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen for the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the many contributions of Bishop Edwin C. Bass and direct the Clerk of this Board to prepare a commemorative copy of this resolution to the end that it may be presented to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the sponsor.

Sergeant Cheryl Orange

WHEREAS, Sgt. Cheryl Orange was nominated for the 5th District Leadership Award due to her dedication and commitment to excellence. Sgt. Orange joined the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Dept. in 1989 with her first assignment being the 2nd District where she learned the fundamentals of becoming a good Police Officer; and

WHEREAS, she has held various assignments to include Traffic Division, Domestic Abuse Response Team and various districts assignments to include the 2nd, 5th, 8th and 7th Districts. Her roots are in the 5th District where her parents continue to reside and where she has maintained the respect and connection with the local residents and business owners/leaders; and

WHEREAS, Sgt. Orange does an exemplary job of insuring that her direct reports receive the direction and guidance when needed, which has resulted several of them being selected for Specialized Units. She welcomes the challenge of assisting Officers overcome their individual struggles and become valued members of the department; and

WHEREAS, although her talents are many, utmost in her repertoire is her ability to gain the support of the community as illustrated at a recent homicide scene wherein she was able to quell the potential of a civil disturbance in the College Hill Neighborhood. Due to her strong ties to the community during the "Hot Spot Initiative" occurring in College Hill, crucial information was obtained and acted upon related to the homicide investigations. These are a few reasons why she is deserving of the 5th District Leadership Award for 2012.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Sergeant Cheryl Orange for making the City of St. Louis a better place to live and work and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Honorable Freeman Bosley, Sr., Alderman 3rd Ward

Sergeant Kyle West

WHEREAS, Sergeant West's demonstrates his commitment to excellence in his openness and objectivity in making judgments. He avoids making hasty decisions and considers alternatives before making commitments. Sergeant West is known for his professionalism and for fostering a "team spirit" amongst subordinates; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his duties as the Administrative Aide, Sergeant West has taken on the responsibility of preparing the Workplace Violence Program. The program was created and presented by Sergeant West to the Safety Council of Greater St. Louis' 9th Annual Safety and Health Conference after a need for training on violence in the workplace was requested following the events at ABB. Sergeant West delivered the information to a room with approximately 50 conference attendees. The presentation was based on open source information surrounding key topic areas including Active Shooter situations. The initial feedback was highly encouraging; and

WHEREAS, the research by Sergeant West prepared him for delivering threat assessment surveys to the Fifth District's public, charter, and parochial schools following the tragedy in Newton, Connecticut; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant West tailored the presentation for property manager, Craig Peters of Colliers International, located at 600 Washington where he and Fourth District Community Outreach Officer Jody Rask delivered the training to approximately 30 participants; and

WHEREAS, lastly, Sergeant West does not hesitate to lead officers in the performance of their duties. On two separate occasions this past year, Sergeant West responded to calls for bank robberies. On both occasions, his leadership skills were instrumental in the effort to arrest those parties responsible for the robberies.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Sergeant Kyle West for making the City of St. Louis a better place to live and work and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

A star athlete and member of the choir upon graduation, Frederick received a full athlete scholarship to attend Northeast Missouri State University in Kirksville, Missouri. At Northeast he obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree and Masters plus thirty hours toward a Doctorate in Education. He briefly returned back to St. Louis upon graduation and began his teaching career at Franklin Grade School in the St. Public Schools System. Frederick had a deep passion for the education of youth; and

WHEREAS, on February 20, 1965 he married Vera Jean Green and to this union three children were born: Frederica Tara, Frederick Tyrone Jr., and Francoise Tamico. He was a devoted father and family man; and

WHEREAS, in 1966 Frederick along with his longtime friends the late Charles Edward Cooks and Herbert Clemons, began their careers with Job Corps Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. In Lincoln, Frederick set up the program and wrote the curriculum. Once his work was finished in Lincoln he moved to the next center in 1968 in Moses Lake, Washington. In addition to setting up the programs he also taught industrial technology; and

WHEREAS, in 1969 Frederick began his migration back to Missouri in the Kansas City Area working in Job Corps there. In 1970 he returned to St. Louis and began working at the Manpower Center at State Community College in East St. Louis, Illinois until 1974. Frederick always wanted to give back to the system that educated him so he returned to St. Louis Public Schools in 1974 until his retirement in 2004. Frederick spent the majority of his career in St. Louis Public Schools at the Visual and Performing Arts High School which was later renamed Central Visual and Performing Arts High School. In addition to teaching wood technology, stain glass, and metal working, Frederick also coached girls' basketball, track and field, cross country and accepted the athletic director position nearing his retirement; and

WHEREAS, Frederick loved spending time with his family, friends, grandchildren, watching sports, discussing world as well as local news and events, helping others and reading. He was baptized at St. Engelbert Catholic Church; and

WHEREAS, Frederick will be dearly missed by his sister, Shirley Cavitt; four children Karen Edwards (Donald), Frederica Clark (Lorenza, Sr.), Frederick, Jr. (Loretta) and Françoise Lyles-Wiggins; his grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause to remember the many contributions of Frederick Tyrone Lyles, Sr. to the citizens of the City of St. Louis and we join with his many friends in expressing our sorrow at his passing, and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation to the Lyles family, at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Captain James E. Moran

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that Captain James E. Moran will soon be retiring after over 36 years with the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department; and

WHEREAS, Captain James E. Moran, DSN 0981, was appointed to the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department as a civilian employee on March 21, 1977, serving as a dispatcher, then later as a Police Cadet; and

WHEREAS, on August 28, 1978, he began his commissioned career as a recruit in the Greater St. Louis Police Academy. Captain Moran went on to serve 36 faithful years before officially retiring on September 8, 2013. He was a 1975 graduate of St. Louis University High School, before furthering his education and earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Management from Webster University in 1990; and

WHEREAS, during his 36 years of service, Captain Moran served first as a Police Cadet, then in the Bureau of Community Policing in the Second, Third, Sixth, Seventh, and Ninth Districts. He also served in various investigative assignments in the Bomb & Arson Section, Internal Affairs Division, and Violent Crime Task Force. He also served in an administrative capacity in the Office of the Chief of Police; and

WHEREAS, throughout his career, Captain Moran was the recipient of ten "Chief's

Letters of Commendation” and numerous complimentary letters from grateful citizens of the City of St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, Captain Moran has devoted over 20 years of his life as a dedicated supporter and volunteer with Special Olympics of Missouri. He has developed a special bond with hundreds of Special Olympians over the years, and contributes further to his favorite charity by serving on several Special Olympic committees in the St. Louis area; and

WHEREAS, Captain Moran was considered a mentor for many young police officers and considered his officers a part of his extended family. His opinion and advice was routinely sought from younger officers, especially when dealing with stressful personal and job related situations; and

WHEREAS, Captain Moran is looking forward to his new career with St. Louis University as the Assistant Vice President of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness. We wish him well in his new career, and many happy, healthy years ahead with his son Conor, brother Edward, and sisters Karen, Patricia, Susan, Carol and Colleen by his side.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to congratulate Captain James E. Moran for over 36 years of service with the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department and we wish him peace and happiness in his retirement and we direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to further prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Lee James Sr.

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that on Thursday, August 29, 2013, Lee James Sr. will be recognized by the residents of the Twenty-Second Ward with the presentation of the Good Neighbor Award for a Business; and

WHEREAS, Lee James Sr. started working for a hauling company about 12 years ago. He noticed that there was a high demand for this service. With Lee's knowledge of the community he realized he could offer the public lower prices and still have a lucrative business. Around 11 years ago, he started his own business in hauling and 6 years later he added a furniture component to his business; and

WHEREAS, today, Mr. James is the sole proprietor of Lee's Hauling and Furniture located at 6104 Page Boulevard, St. Louis. He has the ambition and resolve to keep one foot in front of the other; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James is a God fearing man, a husband, a father, and a family man. One of his greatest passions is to support educational opportunities for children. With his past observations on life, Lee believes if you give back to people with disparities the blessings God gives to us, we should turn around and bless those less fortunate; and

WHEREAS, Lee is always willing to give men a chance of employment, where, it may otherwise, be nearly impossible for those same men to have employment opportunities and provide for themselves and family; and

WHEREAS, Lee's work speaks for itself. There are few advertising media outlets or gimmicks used because his business spreads by the referrals of his customers. He has established reoccurring business with many faithful customers; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James is determined to make every day count for the community. He hosts a Back to School Event every year. His business provides young boys free haircuts, all children are rewarded with a backpack filled with school supplies, plenty of fun activities for the family, and free food; and

WHEREAS, Lee's objective is to create a profit, generate revenue for the City of St. Louis, and provide as many employment opportunities for residents within the community; and

WHEREAS, Lee is not single minded or selfish; he's interested in networking with surrounding small businesses, community clinics, and all other community awareness programs.

Mr. James believes educating our children is very vital in today's world and he wants to ensure that he does his part in uplifting.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the contributions of Lee James Sr. and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
