SECOND READING AND REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Mr. Ortmann of the Committee on Neighborhood Development submitted the following report which was read.

Board of Aldermen Committee report, September 21, 2012.

To the President of the Board of Aldermen:

The Committee on Neighborhood Development to whom was referred the following Board Bills, report that they have considered the same and recommend adoption.

Board Bill No. 124

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated June 26, 2012 for the 2416 McNair St. Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that none of the property within the Area is occupied, but if it should become occupied the Redeveloper (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a five (5) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Board Bill No. 125

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated June 26, 2012 for the 3224-26 Michigan Ave. Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that none of the property within the Area is occupied, but if it should become occupied the Redeveloper (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a five (5) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Board Bill No. 126

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated June 26, 2012 for the 3927-3929 Shenandoah Ave. Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that none of the property within the Area is occupied, but if it should become occupied the Redeveloper(s) (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a ten (10) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Board Bill No. 127

President Reed introduced Resolutions No. 128 through 133 and the Clerk was instructed to read same.

Resolution No. 128

Anthony D. Davis

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that after many years of dedicated service to the Missouri Department of Corrections, Division of Probation and Parole Anthony D. Davis will soon retire; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis began his career with the Missouri Department of Corrections, Division of Probation and Parole in April 1987 as Probation and Parole Officer; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis served as one of the first Probation and Parole Officers assigned to the Electronic Monitoring Program. He was Promoted to the position of Unit Supervisor in 1995;

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis served as the Unit Supervisor overseeing the Weed and Seed Program for the Hamilton Heights-West End, Fountain Park, Lewis Place and Vandeventer Neighborhoods. He also served as the Supervisor for the St. Louis Police Partnership Project for the Wells-Goodfellow and Hamilton Heights Neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, he was a member of the Probation and Parole Eastern Region Speakers' Bureau for 18 years. He served as an advisor and or Board member for the following community agencies: Lutheran Ministries Community Re-Entry Program, New Beginnings C-Star Treatment Program, Transformation Church Job Training Program, Co-Chairperson for the Regional Response Coalition and the Forest Park Southeast Neighborhood Safety Committee; and

WHEREAS, he has been married to Juliana for over 30 years, they have two sons, Anthony II and Jason and are the proud grandparents of Anthony III and Jaylen.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to congratulate Anthony D. Davis for many years of commitment and loyalty to the citizens of the City of St. Louis and we wish him peace and happiness in his retirement and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Introduced on the 21st day of September, 2012 by:

Honorable Jeffrey L. Boyd, Alderman 22nd Ward

Honorable Frank Williamson, Alderman 26th Ward

Resolution No. 129

WHEREAS, Missouri holds the health and safety of its young adults as a chief concern; and

WHEREAS, text messaging is the main mode of communication for most American teenagers with half of all teen sending between 21 and 70 texts a day; and

WHEREAS, 90% of American teenagers expect a reply to a text message within five minutes; and

WHEREAS, texting takes one's eyes off the road for an average of five seconds; and

WHEREAS, in a national survey, 43% of American teenage drivers admitted to texting while driving even though 97% know it is dangerous; and

WHEREAS, a recent university study showed those who send text messages while driving are 23 times more likely to crash; and

WHEREAS, a driver that sends a text message while driving not only jeopardizes his or her safety, but also the safety of passengers, pedestrians, and other drivers.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and praise the tremendous contributions of AT& T in increasing awareness of the hazards of texting and driving in our community, this board, and the entire city and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Introduced on the 21st day of September, 2012 by:

Honorable Antonio D. French, Alderman 21st Ward

Honorable Lewis E. Reed, President, Board of Aldermen

Resolution No. 130

St. John the Baptist

Elementary School

WHEREAS, St. John the Baptist Elementary School completed the Missouri Department of Conservation pilot program, "Nature Unfolds". This program is a "Discover Nature" schools curriculum for kindergarten through second grade; and

WHEREAS, as a part of this program, the students observed and recorded similarities and differences of trees, nature and people. They learned about the value of plants, animals, and natural systems in their own community; and

WHEREAS, by participating in this program the school received a grant from the Missouri Department of Conservation to plant a garden on the school grounds. The faculty members worked with the community businesses and received support with additional grants; and

WHEREAS, with the help of parents, the students and teachers planted a garden on the school grounds. With a team effort to maintain and water, the garden survived this summer's drought; and

WHEREAS, the garden has served to enhance the school grounds and give the students a life experience in gardening and a love for nature. It also has served to beautify the community and provide a place to enjoy the gifts of nature.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize St. John the Baptist Elementary School for completing the Missouri Department of Conservation pilot program, "Nature Unfolds" and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Introduced on the 21st day of September, 2012 by:

Honorable Carol Howard, Alderwoman 14th Ward

Resolution No. 131

Saint Louis Zoo

WHEREAS, the prestigious Saint Louis Zoo is well known as a major force for wildlife conservation and for public enlightenment through its excellent animal care and public education and engagement initiatives; and

WHEREAS, the Saint Louis Zoo—one of the nation's few zoos with no admission charge—attracts three million visitors annually and ranks as the #1 zoo by Zagat Survey and Parenting Magazine and among the top three U.S. zoos in number of visitors; and

WHEREAS, after decades of work conserving wild animals in wild places, the Saint Louis Zoo established its WildCare Institute in 2004 to bring together conservation initiatives under a single organization; and

WHEREAS, WildCare Institute is dedicated to creating a sustainable future for wildlife and for people around the world. The Institute and its 12 centers take a holistic approach to troubled ecosystems by addressing three key ingredients in conservation success: wildlife management and recovery, conservation science, and support of the human populations that coexist with wildlife; and.

WHEREAS, at a Sept. 12th, 2012, awards ceremony during its annual meeting, the Association of Zoos and Aquariums (AZA) announced that the Saint Louis Zoo was selected for two of the AZA's three coveted awards recognizing top conservation initiatives; and

WHEREAS, AZA President and CEO Jim Maddy recognized the Saint Louis Zoo as a leader in wildlife conservation—both at home and abroad: "While all AZA-accredited zoos and aquariums make conservation a top priority, these awards bring well-deserved national recognition to the Saint Louis Zoo for making a positive impact on the future of these species."

WHEREAS, AZA's most historic award, the 2012 Edward H. Bean Award, went to the Zoo for its "Propagation, Head-start and Conservation Program for the Ozark Hellbender." The Edward H. Bean Award recognizes a truly significant captive propagation effort that clearly enhances the conservation of the species; and

WHEREAS, the Edward H. Bean award not only honors the Zoo's captive breeding efforts but also underscores the importance of an initiative that moves us toward a better understanding of the overall health of the aquatic ecosystem of streams and rivers here in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the 2012 International Conservation Award also went to the Saint Louis Zoo and its partners for the "Grevy's Zebra Trust and AZA: A Model of Collaborative Endangered Species Conservation Program." The International Conservation Award recognizes exceptional efforts toward habitat preservation, species restoration, and support of biodiversity in the wild; and

WHEREAS, these awards recognize the decades of work by two highly respected Zoo professionals: St. Louis, Mo., residents and directors of WildCare Institute centers—Jeff Ettl, Zoo Curator of Herpetology and Aquatics and Director of the WildCare's Ron Goellner Center for Hellbender Conservation, and Curator of Mammals Martha Fischer, Director of the WildCare Center for Conservation in the Horn of Africa, which supports the Grevy's Zebra Trust; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and honor the Saint Louis Zoo for its contribution to the conservation of wildlife not only in the wild but at the Zoo and we wish them continued success and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Introduced on the 21st day of September, 2012 by:

Honorable Lyda Krewson, Alderwoman 28th Ward

Resolution No. 132

Prostate Cancer Awareness Month

WHEREAS, prostate cancer is the most common cancer affecting men; and

WHEREAS, African American men, 40 and older, are 56% more likely to be diagnosed with prostate cancer and 2.5 times more likely to die from prostate cancer; and

WHEREAS, The Empowerment network, Inc promotes "early detection is key" for the effective management of prostate cancer by becoming a part of the Prostate Cancer Awareness Coalition, a program that offers Prostate Specific Antigen (PSA) screening; and

WHEREAS, The Empowerment Network, Inc. since its inception in 2008 has heightened prostate cancer awareness and education in the St. Louis community by assisting and supporting thousands of men and their families; and

WHEREAS, in his Presidential Proclamation, President Barack Obama stated in part that "Too many men will develop prostate cancer during their lifetime. As we mark National Prostate Cancer Awareness Month, let us support the families who fight alongside them, pay tribute to the professional who pursue the highest standards of care, and rededicate ourselves to improving outcomes for prostate cancer patients across our country"; and

WHEREAS, let us also rededicate our efforts in honor of Alderman Gregory Carter, who was a strong and faithful supporter of The Empowerment Network as well as an advocate, and a champion for prostate cancer awareness.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Prostate Cancer Awareness Month and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
