

Resolution Number 40

Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School

Whereas, the education of children is one of the most important duties of any society; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School had more than 99% of their students sign the Bully Awareness Pledge; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School has developed a strong parental involvement program; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School has a strong faith based partnership with St. Timothy's Episcopal Church; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School has achieved the Bronze recognition level for School-wide Positive Behavior Support (SW-PBS) implementation; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School has significantly reduced discipline incidents, including bullying incidents; and

Whereas, Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School offers continuous educational opportunities for the broader community.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to join with the St. Louis Special Appointed Board and Kelvin Adams, Ph.D., Superintendent of Schools, in recognizing Sigel Elementary Community Education Full Service School as an exemplary model of Bully Awareness and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
