

RESOLUTION NO. 76
Zy’Ron Javon Lee Wade

WHEREAS, Zy’Ron Javon Lee Wade was born into A Sure Foundation Christian Church 11 years ago, where he shall always be a member; he touched everyone he met with a great example of love and acceptance; and

WHEREAS, Zy’Ron, keeping his Bible close by, visited many churches throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan area; A Sure Foundation Christian Church was the home church that he shared with his uncle, Minister Phillip Maurice Wade, and A Sure Foundation Christian Church was the church that he loved most and requested personally to attend; and

WHEREAS, Zy’Ron’s desire was to graduate from his school, Meadows Elementary, God made him able to do so, he graduated from the fifth grade, and his accomplishment was celebrated throughout both the educational and medical communities, among family and friends and all that knew and loved him; and

WHEREAS, Zy’Ron was gifted with persistence and his professional career aspiration was to become a Law Enforcement Officer, to help the community. In honor of Zy’Ron’s desire St. Louis City’s Department of Public Safety, St. Louis City and County Police Departments and the Missouri State Highway Patrol held an official ceremony making him an Honorary Officer, one worthy to be acknowledged as Officer Zy’Ron Javon Lee Wade; and

WHEREAS, Officer Wade faithfully waited for a K-9 to join him that would be reliable, pleasant with others on the job, a companion would display a good-natured cooperative attitude with a willingness to take on the responsibility of being sensitive to Officer Wade’s needs, a K-9 that would be helpful and ready to respond to emergency situations with little or no notice; God rewarded Officer Wade’s faithfulness: his K-9 partner Remington was bequeathed to him by his beloved nurse Pam; and

WHEREAS, when we celebrate Father’s Day at A Sure Foundation Christian Church, we will celebrate in remembrance of it being the day that Zy’Ron went home to be with His Father in heaven, and there will always be a personal mention, salute, and a passage of Scripture read during the Children of Korah Scripture Recital in memory of our member and Honorary Police Officer, Zy’Ron Javon Lee Wade.

NOW THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that upon learning of the passing of Zy’Ron Wade, we offer our condolence and remembrance to express our sense of loss and sorrow at his death; we further instruct the Clerk to spread a copy of this resolution over the permanent rolls of this Board to the end that it might be presented to his family as deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
