

Resolution Number 197
Patricia L. Wendling

WHEREAS, we have been advised that after more than 23 years of dedicated public service to the City of St. Louis, Patricia L. Wendling will soon retire; and

WHEREAS, Patricia L. Wendling is a lifetime City resident; a graduate of Cleveland Public High School; a St. Louis City Junior District Tennis Champion; a graduate of Central Methodist College, where she was Homecoming Queen, a member of the Men's Varsity Tennis Team, and President of the Young Republicans; received a Master's Degree in Urban Affairs at Saint Louis University; then graduated from Denver University Law School; and has been a member of the Missouri Bar for more than 36 years; and

WHEREAS, Patricia L. Wendling, during her decades of service at the City Counselor's Office has represented many City offices including, among others, the Collector of Revenue, License Collector, Health Department, Fire Department, and Juvenile Court; and

WHEREAS, Patricia L. Wendling has resolved conflicts at every level of government using her legal acumen, communication skill, warm personality, and endless civility; and

WHEREAS, Patricia L. Wendling has been blessed in her personal life, happily married since June 24, 1978 and sharing with her husband four children and seven grandchildren whom she adores and plans to nurture and guide in their personal development; and

WHEREAS, Patricia L. Wendling plans to continue in the next chapter of her life by mentoring public school students, playing tennis, doing needlepoint, and relishing every possible moment with her grandchildren.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to congratulate and thank Patricia L. Wendling for her 23 years of civil service with the City of St. Louis. We wish her peace and happiness in her retirement and we direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this resolution over the permanent rolls of the Board and to further prepare a commemorative copy to be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
