

RESOLUTION NUMBER 309
ELVIRA L. MILLER

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that Elvira L. Miller will be retiring from the United States Postal Service on January 11, 2008, with 35 years of service; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Miller began her Civil Service career in 1974 at the entry level of the Civil Service Employment and is retiring from the position of USP Service Manager for The St. Louis Accounting Service Center, Accounting Control Operations; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Miller has held several positions during her career. She started out as a Mailhandler; continued as an Audit Code and Correlation Clerk; Claims & Voucher Exam Tech; Accounting Spec Sr.; Accountant; Supervisor, Air Transportation; Sr. Systems Accountant as well as worked for the Department of Army and the Department of Agriculture; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Miller has done an outstanding job at every level. She has worked long and hard and has maintained an impeccable reputation of the highest standards; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Miller manages 66 employees, ranging from entry level to career positions. She maintains an open door policy to all of her employees. She listens and advises, and no issue is too small or too complex; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Miller has been a mentor, as well as friend, to many employees. She has trained hundreds of Postal employees. She has served on several Promotion Boards, making the appropriate decision to not only promote qualified and well-trained employees, but also to have a hand in their career advancement.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Ms. Elvira L. Miller's dedication and commitment to the citizens of the City of St. Louis, and we direct the Clerk of this Board to prepare a commemorative copy of this Resolution to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the sponsor.
